Senior point guard John Lopes had a triple-double, and hit a buzzer-beater at the end of regulation to force overtime, but fouls eventually took their toll on the Trinity Catholic boys basketball team during a 77-64 double-overtime loss at Austin Prep last night.

Lopes had 14 points, 13 rebounds and 11 assists for his first triple-double of the season. His buzzer-beater made it 55-55 through regulation, and the teams were knotted at 62-62 through one extra session, before Austin Prep outscored the Falcons 15-2 in the second overtime.

“It was tight throughout and we just ran out of steam,” said TC coach Scott Knack, who was without seniors Jeff Pascal and Chizem Egesionu in the second OT due to fouls. “Once they fouled out we couldn't get any shots to go for us and we couldn't get any stops.”

Senior Golden Okonoboh had a big game with 24 points and nine rebounds. Pascal had 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Egesionu had nine points and seven rebounds.

The Falcons (14-5) end the regular season with a home game against Mashpee Thursday at 2 p.m. The game could be very significant to TC's Division 4 North seeding as Knack said the Falcons could be slotted anywhere from third to ninth in the draw depending on the results of games still to be played this week.

Waltham's Kevin McAdam scored a goal and Joe McKinnon had an assist despite the Trinity Catholic boys hockey team's 6-2 loss to Rockport.

The defeat knocked the Falcons (7-9-3) from state tournament contention with one game remaining in the season.

The Falcons played yesterday's game with only eight available players.

Senior Mike Marchionda had a goal and assist for TC.

The Falcons finish the season tomorrow night at home against St. Clement's.
